Solicitation Release Form (SRF)

MAP and Creditors International Members are NOT required to complete this form.

ACPAC's primary goal is to support and enhance the effectiveness of ACA International's lobbying and political advocacy efforts and strengthen grassroots capabilities. By collecting voluntary political contributions, members of ACA International are able to pool their resources to assist and gain support from federal legislators that support the issues affecting the credit and collections industry.

ACPAC must make a written request to the member companies of ACA International for permission to solicit them. Corporate approval is necessary before ACPAC may solicit you and your employees for any fundraising events. The request may be signed by the company representative from whom ACA International normally conducts its activities. A corporation may not approve solicitations by more than one federal PAC in a calendar year. Corporate approval of trade association PACs in no way limits the corporation's right to solicit contributions for its own PAC.

If your business is not incorporated, this prior authorization is not required. This authorization does not obligate you to contribute to ACPAC. It does allow us to keep you informed of political and legislative issues and activities.

Please complete the form and return to ACPAC. Sign all five years for your convenience.

ACPAC is a separate, segregated fund established by ACA International to pool funds to be used for political purposes. Contributions are voluntary and you have a right to refuse to contribute without reprisal. The amount given by the contributor, or the refusal to give, will not benefit or disadvantage the person being solicited. The suggested amount is only a suggestion; more or less than the suggested amount may be given. Contributions to ACPAC cannot be deducted as a charitable contribution for federal tax purposes. Federal law requires ACPAC to use its best efforts to collect and report the name, mailing address, occupation and the name of employer of individuals whose contributions exceed $200 per calendar year. If you have any questions, please call (952) 928-8000, ext. 104, or e-mail acpac@acainternational.org.
